TWO BROTHERS ON TRIAL IN ROBBERY CASE

An Adams County jury was considering a robbery charge against Robert Wherley, 24, Littlestown R. D., and his brother, James Wherley, 21, Hanover, accused of taking $16 from Robert J. Sponseller, East Berlin R. 2, a "friend of 15 years standing," on August 23.

Sponseller claims that the Wherley brothers pinned his arms and took $16 from him outside his home on August 23. He also claimed that by threats they forced him to cash a check for $67.45 and then took his pocketbook from him. He also alleged other incidents in which he claimed he was robbed by the Wherleys, but the court threw out two of the charges against the Wherleys immediately after the prosecution had presented its case this morning.

Say Money Was Loan

All that remained of the three-count charge after the court had sustained a demurrer of Defense Attorney John A. MacPhail, wiping out two of the counts, was a charge that the two men had taken $16 from Sponseller by force.

On the witness stand Robert Wherley denied taking $16 from Sponseller, but said he borrowed $55 from Sponseller on August 23. He said he had gone to Sponseller's home, having known Sponseller for 15 years socially, and asked to borrow $55. He said that Sponseller agreed but "would have to cash a check." Robert Wherley said he got into the front seat of Sponseller's car, which Sponseller was driving. James Wherley and Paul Myers got in the back seat. The four drove to a tavern, had a beer each there and Sponseller, after paying for the beer, gave Robert Wherley $15. They then proceeded to New Oxford where Sponseller cashed his check for $67.45 at a service station, the "on the way back Sponseller reached in his pocket and handed me two $20 bills," Wherley said. Robert Wherley said he planned to pay the money back the following Friday.

Says Money Taken

Wherley said there never had been threats or any violence and added that he had a number of times lent Sponseller money and a number of times had borrowed money from Sponseller.

Pau. Myers, East Berlin R. 2, testified that Robert Wherley had pinned Sponseller's arm behind him and took $16 from him before they got into the car on August 23. He also held that Wherley had threatened to "cut my heart out," on a later occasion.

Sponseller said that the older Wherley had forced him to give him the $16 in cash by pinning his arm, and that when Wherley saw the check in his pocketbook threatened to "club him off" if he did not go into town and cash the check and give Wherley the cash.

Smith Guilty

Trial of the Wherley brothers' case began Thursday afternoon after a jury had found Thomas E. Smith, New Oxford R. 1, guilty of a morals charge.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter announced that Cyril D. Hockensmith, Hanover, had entered a plea to a charge of violation of the uniform firearms act, and that LeRoy C. Weyant and Mary I. Weyant, of Gettysburg R. (Continued On Page 2)

Dulles Will Fly To Formosa

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles plans to make a quick flying visit to Formosa next week for talks with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek of Nationalist China.

Informants who reported this today said Dulles probably will fly to Taipei from Rome where he is to attend memorial services for the late Pope Pius XII.

Dulles' visit would follow up talks by Secretary of Defense McElroy with Chiang. McElroy was reported discussing a formula for easing the Quemoy crisis, possibly including withdrawal of some of Chiang's 85,000-man garrison from the island.

ARENDSVILLE WATER WORKS TO UP RATES

Bids on improvements to Arendtsville's municipal water system will be opened November 5, the borough's newly organized municipal authority decided Thursday night.

The authority was joined in its meeting in the social room of the National Bank of Arendtsville by the borough council which recommended that the authority proceed to secure bids on the project.

The work is expected to cost about $32,000 and will be financed through an authority bond issue, probably amortized over a 40 year period. This will mean an increase in water rates, now $18 per family annually. Borough officials hope to keep this increase within a 50 per cent limit, that is the rate not over $27, but the actual rate will depend on the amount the authority will require for interest and redemption of the bonds.

To Avoid Frills

Council indicated to the authority, in its recommendations, that it favored keeping the cost as low as possible. Consequently, in taking the bids two alternates will be asked. These are the substitution of transit pipe for cast iron and the elimination of certain automatic controls which are included in the engineer's proposal.

The overall improvement project calls for drilling an additional well, already done, building a pump house, adding another pump, laying a new main from the pump house to the reservoir, installation of a chlorinator at each of the pumps, and improvements at the reservoir. There a drain will be provided to facilitate cleaning, a screen will be placed at the outlet (where water enters the main and the basin's sides would be coated).

Water from the two wells will go to the reservoir through the new main and will empty into the reservoir through two nozzles (Continued On Page 14)

Three Are Shot To Death In Dingy Mountain Cabin

MINAM. Ore. (AP) — Three persons were shot to death in a dingy mountain cabin Thursday night. A little girl later was found crying near the bodies of two other persons.

The father of the 3-year-old girl was William T. Nickels, 53, whose body was found sprawled in an open doorway in a kitchen littered with dirty dishes.

A few feet away lay the body of his wife Delores, 40, who had begun divorce proceedings a few hours before.

The third victim was Miss Billie Johnson, 25. Her body lay face down on the rough board floor of the cabin's living room. All were from Enterprise, the county seat of this rugged mountain country in northeastern Oregon.

Police had dashed to the house after Archie Conrad, 53, a mill worker, had crawled 300 yards to a neighbor's house for help. Conrad, wounded in the shoulder, was taken to a hospital at La Grande, 40 miles south of here. "We don't know yet who did the shooting," Sgt. C. J. Casciato said. "We will question Conrad as soon as he comes out from the sedatives."

However, one state policeman, T. J. Botner, talked with Conrad briefly before the wounded man was put under the heavy sedation.

CATHOLICS TO OBSERVE MISSION DAY

The Most Reverend George L. Leech, bishop of Harrisburg, today announced that all churches in the Diocese of Harrisburg will join in the observance of Mission Sunday on Sunday. The sermon at all the Masses will be on the work of the Catholic Mission activity throughout the world.

In a pastoral letter to the priests and people of the diocese, Bishop Leech observed that "to be Christ-minded is to be mission-minded." At the same time, he also commended and thanked the clergy and laity for their interest in the mission activities of the church.

Diocese Ranks High

At the recent meeting of the Pennsylvania directors of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith held in Pittsburgh, it was announced that the annual report of the society ranks the Harrisburg diocese first in the per capita offerings in the state. The total mission offerings received last year amounted to over $160,000. This represents an offering of more than $1 from each baptized Catholic in the 15-county area of the diocese. The total given from this area was over $30,000.

Proceeds from the Mission Sunday offerings aid over 135,000 missionaries throughout the world in the form of subsidies which are granted yearly to 750 different ecclesiastical jurisdictions which are designated as Foreign Mission areas. The subsidies aid over 5,000 hospitals and dispensaries, 2,000 orphanages, 45,000 schools of all levels, 350 leprosaria and many other works of charity. Yearly over 60,000,000 pagans are helped through these works of the Catholic Church.

Displaced By Tot

President Eisenhower seems to enjoy being replaced in his big leather office chair by Steven Levelsmier, 2, Carbondale, Ill., during White House ceremony. Steven and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Levelsmier, and his 1-year-old sister were invited to the Mansion to receive the 40 millionth copy of the government's best seller, "Infant Care." The boy twirled the President's globe and amused himself otherwise but refused to accept the booklet. Finally Eisenhower handed it to the boy's mother, shown at right. (AP Wirephoto)

MERGER TALKS CONTINUED AT BENDERSVILLE

The school directors in the Upper Adams Joint School System are not unhappy with the jointure that was formed among the six member districts in 1947. The reason they are "plugging" for a favorable vote on the school district merger question which will appear on the ballots in the six districts November 4 is that they feel the district will operate more advantageously, for both students and taxpayers, if the six districts become one.

That is the way Donald B. Hudson, supervising principal of the system, explained it in the Bendersville school Thursday night to the citizens who attended the second of a series of public meetings in which school officials are telling about the merger proposal.

"The Upper Adams jointure is one of the most successful in the state," Hudson said. "Its organization has served as a model for other districts."

Greater state contributions toward the expenses of the school district and savings in local administrative expenses are the money reasons why the school boards want to merge. "But the larger state payments won't mean any more state control," Hudson assured his audience.

CLAIMS ISLES ARE DEFENSE NECESSITY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nationalist China's new ambassador said today abandonment of Quemoy and Matsu to the Chinese Communists would dishearten Nationalist troops and those holding the line against the Reds in Korea and Viet Nam.

Dr. George K. C. Yeh said his government has no intention of giving up those islands just off the Communist-held mainland "because the abandoning of them would mean a retreat for the entire free world."

Speaking of the Communist cease-fire now in effect, Yeh said this resulted from "a combined stand of firmness" by Nationalist China and the United States.

In a speech prepared for the National Press Club, Yeh made no mention of talk the Nationalists might trim their forces on the embattled islands. Both President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have been critical of heavy Nationalist troop concentrations there.

The Nationalist envoy said a gradual increase in such forces, beginning in 1949, came "in response to the steady challenging buildup of the Communist strength along the Fukien coast."

He stressed that forces stationed on the offshore islands "were at no time intended for offensive purposes" and that it was never the intention of the Nationalist command to use Quemoy and Matsu for operations against the mainland.

In explaining why the Nationalists attach such importance to the offshore islands, Yeh noted they lie in key positions facing the Red ports of Amoy and Fochow—ports he said would be convenient centers for assembling ships to invade Formosa and the Pescadores Islands.

With Quemoy and Matsu in Nationalist hands, he said, "the Communists will not be able to initiate their invasion preparations in that immediate area facing Taiwan (Formosa) without being immediately detected and deterred."

Claim McElroy Made No Promises

GUAM (AP)—Adm. Harry Felt denied today that Secretary of Defense McElroy had promised modern weapons to the Philippines.

Felt, commander of U.S. forces in the Pacific commented: "What the secretary said was that the United States is always willing to sit down with its friends and discuss revision of policies—but not that we would send modern weapons to the Philippines."

McElroy had been reported in Manila as saying the United States would provide the Philippines with modern weapons for defense. The secretary commented as he boarded a U.S. Air Force plane. He is on a world inspection tour of U.S. military installations.

Felt contradicted reports of McElroy's comments at a stopover in Guam, en route to his headquarters in Honolulu.

SCOTS IGNORE RED ORDER ON RESCUE EFFORT

WICK, Scotland (AP)—A Russian fishing boat broke up and sank in a storm off the Shetland Islands today. Soviet officers and Scottish seamen tangled over what should be done with three survivors.

The Russians insisted they should not be taken to British soil. The Scots who rescued the three, insisted they were taking no orders from Russians and landed the survivors.

At least three Russians were known dead and Scottish coastmen feared the toll would rise to 22. The Soviet craft was believed to have carried a crew of 25. She was among a fleet of 30 Soviet fishing boats in the area.

Scottish seamen manned coast guard boats when they got the SOS from the Soviet trawlers.

Pan American Opens Jet Service To Brussels Today

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Pan American World Airways inaugurated American transatlantic jet passenger service today with a Baltimore-Brussels flight that averaged about 540 miles per hour.

The Boeing 707 jet airliner, with its crew and 39 guest passengers landed here at 8:15 a.m. (2:15 a.m., EST), completing a 3,910-mile flight in 7 hours 15 minutes flying time.

Before its takeoff from Baltimore Thursday night, the 165-passenger plane was christened Jet Clipper America by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower in a Washington ceremony.

Change Landing Time
The 707 has a rated cruising speed of 575 miles an hour, and Pan American officials had hoped the trip would take only about 6 hours 15 minutes. Local officials of the airline requested a later landing so the official greeters would not have to get up so early.

Pan American plans to inaugurate regular transatlantic jet service Oct. 26 and to begin daily flights to and from New York, London, Paris, Rome, Frankfurt, Amsterdam, Brussels, and Zurich.

ADAMS MINE PRODUCT USED FOR PAVING

An Adams County product, Serex, produced by the Summit Mining Corp. in its mining operation between Aspers and Wenksville, is being used as a base material in the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.'s Rubarite, an additive for an asphalt paving mix recently put into use on the North Hill Viaduct, Akron, Ohio.

The rubberized asphalt paving mix is expected to give the viaduct a smoother, longer lasting road surface requiring less maintenance than previously used paving materials.

Serex is the result of three years of development by the Aspers firm. The production of Rubarite marks the entry of the rubber industry into the hot competition between the asphalt and cement industries, both of which claim that their products are superior for highway construction.

The Akron project is one of 15 totaling more than 160 miles in the U. S. where the new asphalt-rubber combination has been installed. The one nearest here is between Pittsburgh and Akron.

Done Quickly
The Akron viaduct, built in 1922, is a four-lane artery almost three-quarters of a mile long. The job of resurfacing was done in three working days with flow of traffic, even during rush hours, maintained throughout.

About 1,300 tons of asphaltic hot mix were used, including six and a half tons of Rubarite, or about three per cent of the synthetic rubber product. The mix was designed for maximum flexibility with maximum stability because of the high degree of movement of the bridge.

Movable steel plate expansion joints, by their movement, frequently forced previous paving materials up as much as three inches, creating rough, uneven surfaces. Improved flexibility and adhesive strength are believed to be secured with the use of the rubber additive.

CHINESE TO GET NIKE MISSILES

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nike-Hercules missiles, the most deadly U. S. anti-aircraft weapon, will be turned over to the Chinese Nationalists in a year to 18 months, when they are trained to use them.

Maj. Gen. Leander L. Doan, commander of U. S. Army forces on Formosa, announced the transfer plans today. He said Nationalist soldiers are training in the United States to handle the missiles.

A battalion of U. S. Army missilemen is building launching sites on Formosa for 48 of the five-ton supersonic missiles. They will assist in training a Nationalist missile battalion, Doan said.

Doan said the missiles would be supplied under the U. S. Military Air Program which already has given the Nationalists some of the latest and best weapons in the American arsenal. These include Sidewinder missiles that have helped Nationalist fighters score lopsided victories over Chinese Communist jets, supersonic F100 Supersabre fighters, M41 Walker Bulldog tanks, and heavy artillery.

Preparing To Cap Offshore Oil Fire

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A fire-fighting team cleared away debris today as they laid the groundwork to cap a fire that has roared for nearly two days from an oil rig in the Gulf of Mexico.

Seven persons are believed to have died in the series of explosions that accompanied the fire Wednesday.

The offshore rig, operated by the CATO group of oil companies, was the central point for six wells already drilled. A seventh well was in the process of drilling.

Pilot, Seeking Non-Stop Record In Single Engine Plane, Is Having Trouble

TOKYO (AP)—Charles F. Banfe Jr. reported today the engine of his small orange airplane was running rough as he flew over the north Pacific in an attempt to set a nonstop distance record for single-engine planes.

Banfe took off from Tokyo at 7:31 a.m. (5:31 p.m., EST Thursday) and headed toward the Aleutians. His Florida destination—Miami, Fla.—was 7,022 miles and an estimated 52 hours away.

He radioed the engine report to a passing airliner 7 1/2 hours after takeoff. A rough engine often smooths out by itself in flight, and the report did not necessarily mean serious trouble.

Exact Positions Unknown
The airliner could not determine his exact position. An hour earlier Banfe told another plane he was 840 miles northeast of Tokyo and his speed and the weather were better than expected.

Airmen in Tokyo estimated he would pass over Shemya, an emergency landing field for commercial planes in the Aleutians, well ahead of schedule if his engine didn't give too much trouble and he stayed on course.

From Shemya the route crossed Fairbanks, Alaska; Winnipeg; Minneapolis, and Chicago.

Counting on tailwinds, the 39-year-old flier hoped to be in Miami Saturday evening with five gallons of gas to spare.

Record Is 6,979 Miles
The existing record was set last Aug. 1 by Marion (Pat) Boling, 43, who flew a slightly larger plane 6,979 miles from Manila to Pendleton, Ore. Both men live in Palo Alto, Calif., and both are commercial airline pilots. Banfe for Pan American and Boling for United Air Lines.

Banfe expected to reach Alaska about 26 hours after taking off from Tokyo.

He left New York 5 1/2 weeks ago on an attempt to circle the earth in eight days, starting with a nonstop flight to Rome. His Mooney Mark 20A aircraft landed in a Corsican vineyard when a fuel line pump clogged.

Has New Engine
Engine trouble continued across Asia. The 180-horsepower replacement engine now in the plane was installed in Hong Kong.

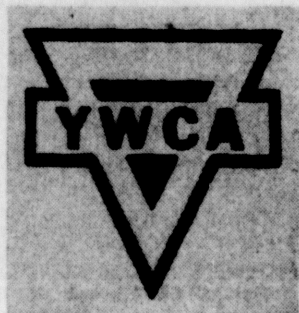

The little plane—a little more than half the size of Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis—is designed to carry two persons. It is called the Spirit of the Adventurer. Flying alone, Banfe carried pills and wore an automatic alarm watch to keep himself awake.

A pillow-size lift raft was in the tiny cabin but he left his parachute behind and had only a small compass and an automatic direction finder.

The plane normally carries 85 gallons of gasoline. Banfe carried 343 gallons weighing 2,050 pounds when he lifted the plane off the runway with difficulty.

Banfe is married to a former air stewardess and they have four children.

FIGHT STORM TO REACH MEN AFTER CRASH

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—A rescue party struggled today to reach three survivors in a wrecked U. S. plane after a helicopter took out four other survivors of an Antarctic crash. Six airmen died in the crash.

A ground party in three tracked vehicles got within four miles of the downed C125 Globemaster at one point but had to turn back and detour around an impassable icefield. Snowstorms made going difficult, U. S. Air Force officials in Auckland said.

Bulked By Weather
The three men reported by emergency radio they were huddled in the tail of the four-engine plane but were in good condition with sufficient food and medical supplies.

Weather balked rescue attempts Thursday after the plane went down on a flight from Christchurch, N. Z., to drop supplies to U. S. bases in the Antarctic.

Two of the men flown out were injured, officials said. They were identified as Airman 2.C. Joel Bailey of Belton, S. C., in serious condition, and Capt. James T. Quattlebaum of Columbia, S.C., in fair condition.

The other two rescued men were not immediately identified.

Another Globemaster was reported waiting at Cape Hallett to fly the survivors to New Zealand.

Louis H. Bell, 52, Dies On Thursday

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Louis H. Bell, 52, veteran newspaperman and former head of the Public Information Department at Pennsylvania State University, died in New York City Thursday night.

University officials received news of Bell's death by telephone from New York, where Bell had gone on business. Death apparently was caused by a heart attack, the officials said.

Bell graduated from Penn State and worked as a newspaperman near his native Chester before returning to the university to teach journalism 25 years ago. He was named director of public information in 1943, a position he held until last July when he quit on the advice of his physician. Since July he has been teaching journalism on a part-time basis.

Bell is survived by his wife, Catherine, and four children.

JUDGE REBUKED BY HIGH COURT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The State Supreme Court today rebuked Judge Lois M. McBride of Allegheny County Orphans Court for unjudicial conduct in connection with the hearing of non-support cases in her chambers instead of open court.

The Supreme Court appointed Attys. J. Villard Frampton of Oil City and William Marshall of Uniontown to conduct a hearing on the charges. They made a report to the high court, and today's unanimous opinion read by Chief Justice Charles A. Jones followed.

70 Prisoners Make Vain Try At Escape In Denver

By ROBERT L. MOORE
DENVER (AP)—Seventy prisoners, at least one of them a confessed murderer, made a desperate but vain bid to escape from the Denver County jail late Thursday.

More than 10 officers, armed with submachineguns, riot shotguns, tear gas and football helmets, quelled the uprising in little more than two hours.

Four guards suffered cuts and bruises. None were believed seriously injured. The prisoners were uninjured and suffered only from heavy doses of tear gas.

Claim "Brutal Treatment"
The end came when the last of some 25 prisoners who had held up in a penthouse atop the jail's maximum security block apparently retreated through the same small hole they had cut to gain entrance during the riot's early confusion.

The men who took refuge in the brick enclosure housing the jail's air-conditioning system and those who stubbornly held out in the cell block were a shouting, howling mass of humanity. They protested what they termed brutal treatment from guards.

Guards discovered the hole in the cell block ceiling leading to the penthouse shortly after the riot broke out. As darkness closed in, Fire Department spotlights showered the small structure with daylight brilliance and a stream of tear gas shells was fired into the penthouse.

Confessed Killer
When more tear gas was poured into the cell block below, the last desperate face disappeared from the window. All avenues of possible escape had vanished. Stillness reigned.

One of the first prisoners who emerged from the cell block early in the rioting was Donald Zorens, who has confessed he killed Denver Patrolman Donald Seick last January.

The cell block was wrecked. Windows, brooms and brushes were battered. Mattresses were ripped open, and water had flooded the floor. Remnants of food served in trays to extremely dangerous prisoners housed in the two lower sections of the six-tier block were scattered on the walls and floor.

The maximum security cell block contains 103 of the jail's 738 prisoners.

BUYING RUSH
NEW YORK (AP)—A great buying rush pushed the stock market further ahead in a recovery early this afternoon. Key stocks advanced fractions to more than a point.

Coppers, steels and some motor stocks were in the forefront as stocks rose in a renewed bullish mood fed by favorable business and economic news. Ticker tape was late at times as much as five minutes.

The market continued to ignore the boost in stock purchase margins to 90 per cent from 70 per cent. Confidence was bolstered by news that the Federal Reserve Board has continued to expand the lending power of commercial banks through open market operations.

Record shipments of cigarettes, rail freight traffic at a new 1958 high, prospects for higher copper prices and good demand for zinc at increased prices were factors.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Lefever Heads District PSEA:

Sheely Speaks: Guile W. Lefever, principal of Gettysburg high school, was elected president of the Southern Convention District of the Pennsylvania State Education association Friday at the annual convention at Hershey. Mr. Lefever, who will succeed A. G. Breidenstine, Hershey, was second vice president last year.

Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools, who was vice president of the county superintendent's department of the district last year, was elected president of that department, succeeding Raymond G. Mowrey, Chambersburg, and William S. Whiteley, Arendtsville principal, was re-elected president of the commercial department.

The selection of Mr. Lefever to head the district marks the second time in 18 years of the organization's existence that a Gettysburg man has headed the group. Dr. Frank H. Kramer, of the college faculty, was elected president in 1928.

Judge W. C. Sheely was a member of panel discussion on "Juvenile Delinquency." James Hebron, Chairman of the Maryland State Commission on Juvenile Delinquency, was the principal speaker at the panel.

Wooden Cases For Honor Roll Are Completed: Completion of the three wooden cases for the nearly 3,000 Adams countians now serving in the armed forces was announced today by the committee in charge of the erection of a permanent honor roll of countians in the service.

The large cases will be placed on the north side of the Dougherty and Hartley building facing the square. Dedication of the honor roll will take place on November 11 with the American Legion in charge of the program.

2,653 names are being printed in gold letters on small panels which will be placed in alphabetical order in the cases.

To Seek Scrap In Arendtsville: The Arendtsville fire company has joined the list of companies in the county that have organized for the collection of salvage materials under the leadership of Dr. Eugene Elgin, East Berlin elected as the new county salvage chairman at a meeting in Gettysburg several weeks ago.

Ernest D. Bushman, Arendtsville merchant and former president of the county firemen, was named as salvage drive captain in Arendtsville at a special meeting of the company Wednesday evening.

The other members of the salvage drive staff there are Bernard Kimpke, lieutenant; John Raffensperger, secretary, and Clyde Allison, treasurer.

Woman's Club Hears Talk On Conservation: "Use it up; wear it out; make it do or do without — don't waste."

That was the motto Miss Mildred L. Adams, county home economics extension representative, urged upon members of the Woman's club of Gettysburg at their first fall meeting at the "Y" building Wednesday afternoon in a talk on "Conservation in the Home."

"Let your apron be your uniform — wear it proudly — and your skillet, your weapon." Miss Adams said as she told the club women that a sixth of the nation's food is wasted through careless or uninformed handling in the homes.

Declaring that the present short food supply will be adequate if every American is made to understand the need for producing and conserving more food, the speaker said: "Let us look at rationing cheerfully and accept it gracefully. The food we have must be shared fairly."

Institute And Rationing To Close Schools: Students in the county's public schools will have an entire week of vacation starting October 25, while the teachers will find the week filled with work and study as they take the

WHENCE COMES COMFORT?

I wonder how many there are who recall the comforting arms of a mother? I recall this comfort vividly. I think of the childhood bumps and falls, and the little disappointments and sorrows — but that mother smoothed them all away. She brought comfort, the same as Jesus brought comfort to His followers, and as an understanding friend has so often brought to each of us the warmth, hope and comfort that we all so much need.

There are persons whose presence immediately gives cheer and warmth to all about them. As though they were dedicated to be helpful and inspiring. How wonderful if we all might be this kind of a friend!

So much of our unhappiness can be traced to loneliness. Big and little alike, however, experience loneliness, and its quickest cure comes when we turn the tables on ourselves and make it our business to try and put a little light and hope into the life of someone else. It's surprising how soon we discover that we are not lonely at all!

Comfort comes from the heart. Never mind how it gets there. The thread of purpose runs through all our good intentions and fine impulses. From the hills, also, comes comfort. Their eyes scan great distances. They are the first to experience the rising of the sun, and its setting in the western sky.

All nature is symbolic of much that is forever alive within us — love, sympathy, a wholeness toward others. Nature is forever shedding its glory, being lavish in her generosity. From Nature we get our cue to life! Earth is our Mother. From her come all our comforts.

Just Folks

THE LITTLE SOULS
There's something wrong with you, my boy,

If you begrudge another joy;
If you despise a friend's success
Because perhaps your own is less,

Then you are bound by envy's chains
And slave to many bitter pains.

Some little souls are so shut in
They cannot see another win
But what they send their sneers afar.

When other people happier are
Than they themselves, they act as though
They'd lost the joy that others know.

And there are little souls that show
Delight when others meet a blow;
They glory in men's failures, too,
Which is a vicious thing to do.

They live their lives from year to year
Belittling other people here.

There's something wrong with you, my boy,

If you begrudge another joy;
Let envy never rule your speech,
Keep malice always out of reach,
And never hesitate to tell
The praise of one who's doing well.

Italy Declares War On Germany: Washington October 13 (AP) — President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin announced today that Italy had declared war against Germany.

The White House said Marshal Badoglio had communicated Italy's declaration against her former Axis partner to General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Allied commander in the Mediterranean theater.

Italy thus turned against her former partner a little more than a month after her armistice with the Allied powers.

IRISH-BRED COLT WILL RUN IN U. S. NOV. 11

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ballymoss, Europe's most famous horse in recent years, is going to get a chance to show he can beat all comers, whether they be American, Australian, English, Italian, German, French or Russian.

The 4-year-old Irish-bred colt, for whom John McShane paid $13,230 as a yearling, has been officially entered in the Nov. 11 running of the $100,000 Washington D.C. International at Laurel.

McShane, Philadelphia contractor, advised President John Schapiro of Laurel Thursday night that his colt is ready for the 1½ mile test on the grass course. Ballymoss was invited last year but forced to withdraw because of an injury.

Field Of Seven

Addition of the Irish colt gives the International a field of seven with at least four more to be invited. Acceptances have been received for Sailor's Guide, Australia; Tanerko, France; Orsini, Germany; Clem, United States and Garmyr and Zampdy of Russia.

Shapiro has in mind Aggressor, favorite for the Cambridgehire in England Oct. 29; Revoke from Argentina; Sedan from Italy, who goes in that country's equivalent to the Jockey Club Gold Cup Sunday and another one from the United States. The latter may come from Saturday's running of the Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park if either Warhead or Martins Rullah wins over Clem.

WIN IN SERIES MEANT $2,863 FOR EACH YANK

NEW YORK (AP) — The difference between winning and losing the 1958 World Series meant $2,863 for each member of the New York Yankees who received a full series share.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick disclosed the distribution Thursday. The Yanks voted 32 full winning shares amounting to $8,759 each. A full losing slice for each of 31 Milwaukee players was worth $5,896.

The winning share for the Yanks was $165 less than the Braves players got after beating New York in the 1957 series. Milwaukee had 30 full shares last year. The losing share for the Braves this season amounted to $290 more than that of the 1957 Yanks who divided 33 full shares.

Full Share For Trucks

Virgil Trucks, who joined the Yanks in mid-June, received a full share. A four-fourth share, worth $6,569.33, was accorded Murry Dickson, who was acquired from Kansas City in late August.

A half-share of $4,379.54 went to Sal Maglie, who was released by New York in mid-June. Fritz Brinkman, Bobby Del Greco and Johnny James, all of whom played briefly, received one-fourth shares.

Last Monday Frick revealed that he had fined 22 Milwaukee players $50 apiece for premature disclosure of their financial breakdown. The commissioner said, "I fined only 22 because they were the only ones eligible to vote on the series' cuts. A player must be on the roster June 1 and remain until the end of the season to be permitted to be at the meeting."

The breakdown of the other first division clubs: American League — Chicago White Sox, 32 full shares, $1,518.94; Boston Red Sox, 32, $995.90; Cleveland Indians, 28, $1,618.61. National League — Pittsburgh Pirates, 32, $1,507.04; San Francisco Giants, 28, $1,031.14; Cincinnati Redlegs, 30, $567.23.

Lou Little Likes New Scoring Rule

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Lou Little, who spent more than 30 years in collegiate football as player and coach, not only favors the new two-point conversion rule but would move up the goal posts to further enliven the game.

"I'd like to see the goal posts moved back to the goal line where they belong," the former Columbia coach declared Thursday. "That would give a team a definite option when near the goal. With that change, field-goal kicking would return to the game. It would become as much a part of the college game as it now is a part of the pro game."

Bullets Invade Reading For Clash With Albright Saturday Evening At 8

Although the Gettysburg College gridders (2-0-1) will be favored to remain in the unbeaten class when they meet Albright (1-1-1) at Reading Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, the Bullets can ill afford to let-up. The Lions have shown surprising strength at times during the season and could prove very troublesome.

Foremost among the seven lettermen on the Albright squad is Frank Sudock, 175, veteran quarterback, who is expected to be on the pitching end of a big aerial attack. Sudock is an excellent passer and has had considerable success against the Bullets in previous years.

Other lettermen in addition to Sudock on the Lions squad include: End, Claude Lynch, 195; tackle, William Ballentine, 200; guard, Harold Miller, 185; centers, Tony LoSapio, 185, and Jim Doremus, 185, and fullback, Gerry Bricker, 175. Five additional players received varsity experience a year ago.

Fresh Aid Lions
Several freshmen have been outstanding this year for Coach John Potkskan, including Gary Chapman, 183, quarterback, and Tom Olivio, 164, halfback.

Albright and the Bullets have met one common opponent to date. The Lions defeated Drexel 21-0 while Gettysburg turned the trick 27-0.

Although the Bullets have been struck recently by a wave of injuries, Coach Eugene Haas has been able to rejoice with the fast development of a group of Sophomores including Ernie Veltan, halfback; Clem Valko, tackle; Frank Temme, guard, and Ron Frederick, end. All are expected to see considerable duty against the Lions.

No major change is anticipated in the Bullets starting lineup Saturday night. However, George Grenier, halfback, may be missing due to a leg injury.

Bullets Lead Series
Saturday's game will be the 19th in the series begun between the schools in 1913. Gettysburg leads 12-2, four games having ended in ties. Last year the Bullets romped to an easy 37-13 victory. Albright's last triumph, 7-0, came in 1952.

Statistics show the Bullets have rolled up 610 yards in three games as compared to but 355 for the opposition. Dick Davidyock has picked up 183 yards in 53 carries and Jim Flood has made 126 in 21 tries.

The Albright stadium, scene of Saturday's game, is located at 12th and Exeter Sts., Reading. WGET will broadcast the game direct from Reading.

Middletown Hi Faces Warriors; Juniata At BHS

Gettysburg High opens a three-game home stand tonight at 8 o'clock when it meets Middletown in a South Penn Conference game. A victory for the Warriors would keep them right in the thick of the conference race.

Unbeaten Juniata Joint carries a 25-game winning streak into its game with the Canyons at Biglerville tonight.

AGED COACH OF OLYMPIC TEAM DIES

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Walter Christie, who coached the winning U.S. Olympic Games team of 1924, died Thursday at a rest home. He was 90.

A track and field personality for more than 40 years, he had coached at the University of California, Williams College, Columbia, Princeton and the Naval Academy.

His greatest fame was gained at California, where his teams won national intercollegiate championships in 1921-22-23. Before he retired here after the 1932 season, he had seen the Cal track lay-out grow from a wooden-bleacher oval to the $250,000 Edwards Track Stadium.

Famous Pupils
His most famous pupils were Eddie Beeson, former holder of the world high jump record, and Karl Shattuck, once holder of the world hammer throw mark.

Before turning coach, Christie had been a professional sprinter in the days when the sport was largely a run-for-pay proposition. Because he ran when split-second stop watches were not widely used, his best times were recorded in terms of yards and full seconds. He ran 103 yards in 10 seconds and 135 yards in 13 seconds.

His term as Cal track coach started in 1901.

He coached for a year at Halsey School in New York in 1893 and the next year went to Williams.

JAYCEES WILL HOLD SPORTS NIGHT DEC. 10

An outstanding after-dinner speaker is being sought as the main speaker at the second annual Sports Night, sponsored by the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, to be held Wednesday, December 10, according to plans made at a committee meeting Thursday evening in the JC's meeting room.

Bill Williams, committee chairman, is attempting to line up many nationally known sports figures. "In several days we will begin to announce some of the personalities who are accepting invitations," Williams said. "Complete plans for the affair will be announced next week. At present it looks as though the Sports Night might be different than the one held a year ago."

Profit from the affair will go towards a football camp for Gettysburg High School. The JC's have already stated their support for the camp next year which will cost in the neighborhood of $900.

Other committee members are: Bob Hixon, program; Carroll Smith, tickets; Dick Guise, publicity; Don Chamberlain, program; Magnus Flaws and Dick Clark, banquet. Meeting with the committee Thursday night were Henry T. Bream, Gettysburg College athletic director; Charles Huber Jr. and M. P. Hartzell Jr.

In the first quarter Engle scampered 25 yards around left end to tally and Don Jarriet circled right end for the extra point.

Gettysburg's lone touchdown came early in the second quarter when Richard Utz intercepted a pass by Dick Loy and raced 35 yards.

Waynesboro retaliated in the same period when Engle broke away on a 60-yard TD jaunt. As the half ended the Braves had driven to the Waynesboro three.

The Cyclones sewed up the decision with two six-pointers in the third quarter. Mowen sparked the first drive with a 33-yard run and then streaked 24 more to tally.

A short time later Mowen broke away on a 52-yard TD run which finished the scoring.

Waynesboro rolled up 295 yards as compared to 137 by the Braves. Gettysburg picked up seven first downs while the winners had five.

Next Thursday afternoon at 3:30 Hanover will oppose the Braves here.

GHS RESERVES BOW 46-0 AT SHIPPENSBURG

The Gettysburg High School junior varsity football team absorbed its third straight defeat when it suffered a 46-0 lacing at Shippensburg Thursday afternoon.

Two touchdowns in the first quarter left little doubt as to the outcome.

In the first period a 50-yard pass play, Lane to Gossert, put the ball deep in Warrior territory. Wyrick booted off tackle from 10 yards out to score and Wenger booted the point.

On the following kickoff Gettysburg fumbled and Shippensburg recovered on the 35. Wenger circled end on the next play to tally. Wenger booted the point.

Two more Hound scores came in the second frame. Wenger galloped 35 yards for the first. An intercepted pass which was returned to the Gettysburg 20 set the stage for the second TD. J. Hockenberry and Wenger moved the ball to the seven from where Lane went over on a quarterback sneak. Bob Garrett, Warrior tackle, blocked the kick for the point.

Stopped On Interception
After J. Hockenberry ran 35 yards for a Shippensburg score to open the third period, the Warriors took to the air. Terry Hise completed a pass to Don Waddell which was good for 40 yards but a little later Wenger intercepted and raced the entire length of the field only to be called back for a clipping penalty on the Hound 45. On the next play Hockenberry ran for the score and Wenger added the point on a running play.

Another interception stalled a Gettysburg scoring threat in the fourth period. Hise passed to Roger Eckert for six and then tossed a 10-yarder to Bob Dean for a first down. Eugene Miller connected with Eckert for six more and a first down before Hockenberry intercepted and returned for a TD. Wenger converted on a placement.

The local jayvees will wind up their season by entertaining Chambersburg here on October 30.

PEDRO RAMOS GOPHER BALL LEADER IN AL

NEW YORK (AP)—Washington's Pedro Ramos repeated as the American League gopher ball leader in 1958 but managed to cut down on his home run serves of a year ago when he set a league record. The Cuban right-hander gave up 36 home runs the past season as compared to 43 in 1957.

Don Newcombe of Cincinnati and Johnny Antonelli of San Francisco tied for the gopher ball title in the National League as Philadelphia's Robin Roberts yielded the "home runs off" crown he had worn since 1954.

Figures compiled by The Associated Press revealed that Newcombe and Antonelli permitted 31 homers apiece while Roberts was touched for 30.

Jensen Got Five
Ramos gave up nine home runs each to Boston and Detroit, Jackie Jensen of the Red Sox hit five round-trippers off the Senators' right-hander.

Billy Pierce was runner-up in the American loop, being tagged for 33 homers. Then came Kansas City's Ralph Terry with 29, Detroit's Jim Bunning 28, and Chicago's Early Wynn 27.

Newcombe, traded from Los Angeles to Cincinnati in June, was solved for 11 homers in only 34 1-3 innings while a member of the Dodgers. Pittsburgh players hit eight four-baggers off him with Frank Thomas and Bill Mazeroski finding the range with three apiece.

Spahn Fourth
Antonelli had the most trouble with Milwaukee batsmen, who hit seven homers off him. Los Angeles and Chicago tapped him for five apiece.

Roberts, who set a big league standard of 46 gopher ball tosses in 1956, had given up 319 homers since joining the Phils in 1948. The durable right-hander topped the NL with 40 homers off in 1957 and also led in 1954 and 1955.

RIGHTISTS IN ALGIERS CALL OFF STRIKE

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP)—French rightists Thursday called off a scheduled general strike to protest Premier Charles de Gaulle's policies in Algeria.

The cancellation was a victory for De Gaulle's policies. Organized opposition to De Gaulle appeared to be falling away. The cancellation was announced by the badly divided Public Safety Committee after Gen. Raoul Salan, De Gaulle's personal deputy in Algeria and the military and civilian ruler of the territory, had called in the committee leaders.

A Public Safety Committee communiqué calling off the general strike did not mention a mass protest demonstration also called for the day. Since the communiqué asked everyone to go about his work normally, this appeared to rule out the demonstration.

New Orders Explained

The committee said it has full confidence in the army and that Salan this morning had explained the new orders from De Gaulle.

Leading Moslem members of the committee joined the army leadership and the government in opposing the strike and demonstration. Belief was widespread in Algiers that De Gaulle would triumph and cement his control of the territory.

A stormy session of the central Public Safety Committee, attended at the end by only 25 of the 64 members, decided to go ahead with the defiance of De Gaulle.

"We are going until the end," declared Pierre la Gaillarde, bearded former paratroop lieutenant who heads militant local student organizations.

A number of committee members walked out after Gen. Raoul Salan, supreme civilian and mili-

GSA Opens Bids On Two Projects

HARRISBURG (AP)—An official low bid of $296,469 was submitted to the General State Authority Wednesday for construction of an art classroom building at Kutztown State Teachers College.

It also received an unofficial low bid of $6,277 for test borings at the Haverford Mental Health Center in Montgomery County. Some 16 buildings will be built in the $14,500,000 Haverford Center.

The apparent low bid on the Kutztown project was submitted by Binkele Construction Corp., Lancaster.

Sprague and Henwood, Inc., Scranton, submitted the bid on the Haverford project.

Other unofficial low bids were: Heating and ventilating: Walter H. Fritz and Co., Inc., West Reading, $65,950; plumbing: C.H. Shery, Hazleton, $36,223; Electrical: Temple Equipment Co., Reading, $49,200.

tary commander in Algeria, in a radio appeal knuckled under to De Gaulle and said he could not "accept" the strike and demonstration.

Cherif Sid Cara, a Moslem co-president of the committee, sent a message from Oran, his home town, repudiating the committee's call. Azem Ouali, the other Moslem co-president, and El Madoui, a vice president, appealed from Paris for the population not to follow the committee's orders.

The strike call was the result of De Gaulle's directive Monday ordering the army to get out of politics. This meant army officers must give up their places on the committee, leaving the civilian members with little strength to preserve their generations-long dominance of Algerian political life.

PHILA. PRINT FIRM OFFICER HEADS P.A. S.S.

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Charles S. Drain Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Strass Heim Printing Co., Philadelphia, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Assn. Thursday at the closing session of the group's annual meeting.

Drain succeeds the Rev. Dr. Clyde W. Meadows, pastor of the United Brethren and Christ Church in Chambersburg.

Others elected were: Charles A. Spellman Jr. of West Chester and Dr. J. Paul Burkhardt of Carlisle, both vice presidents; Benjamin H. Wolfe, Harrisburg, treasurer; Oscar L. Lingle, Harrisburg, assistant treasurer; and Julian F. Ulmer, Pottsville, secretary.

Elect Directors

Harry E. Paisley of Philadelphia was re-elected president emeritus, and John E. Person Sr. of Williamsport was re-elected honorary vice president.

Named to three-year terms on the board of directors were: William K. Bean, Norristown; Dr. A. Monroe Hall, Williamsport; Mrs. Clifford S. Heinz, Pittsburgh; Harry G. Kuch, Philadelphia; Mrs. Frank H. Steen, Belle Vernon; M. C. Stewart, Homer City; Morgan H. Thomas, Philadelphia; Clarence J. Speicher, Hershey.

Named to fill board vacancies created by the resignations of Drain and Burkhardt were Leo H. McKay of Sharon and Dr. Meadows.

Delegates selected Williamsport as the site of the 1959 meeting Oct. 14-16.

They also approved a resolution condemning all acts of violence and lawlessness such as the bombings of schools, synagogues and churches, and urging respect for the authority of congress and the courts.

STATE POLICE PLAN TO LEASE ITS BARRACKS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Commonwealth is abandoning construction of its own state police substations in favor of leasing facilities from private interests.

Col. E. J. Henry, state police commissioner, said Thursday in disclosing the action that it was less expensive to lease a building adapted to state police use than to construct a state-owned installation.

"In the long run, I find it cheaper to do it that way," he told The Associated Press. "We save money on custodial costs that way and the landowner becomes responsible for the light, heat, water and a lot of other maintenance costs."

Henry disclosed there would be no request placed before the 1959 Legislature for any more state police barracks construction.

He said a cost comparison was the reason.

The average rental for a state police substation among the 104 in Pennsylvania runs about $250 a month, he said in comparing the cost for maintaining the Hollidaysburg facility at $1,000 a month for amortization and $1,000 more for upkeep.

"Every time we build our own facility we must provide for a custodian," he said. "His salary ranges from $2,500 to $3,700 a year. We recently rented a brand new substation at Mahanoy City for $10 a month and we don't have to worry about the heat, light and water bills."

But it's too late to change plans, he said for construction currently under way for state-owned substations at Mercer, Somerset, Ebsburg, Lewistown and Pittsburgh.

Plans for state-owned facilities at Chambersburg and Carlisle have been abandoned and these, he said, would be constructed by local owners and then leased to the Commonwealth.

SEVEN FRENCH OILS ARE SOLD IN 20 MINUTES

LONDON (AP)—Seven French Impressionist paintings changed hands Wednesday night at a 20-minute auction which set records both for the price paid for a single picture and for the total realized at one art auction session.

Cezanne's "Boy in the Red Waistcoat" fetched $616,000, more than twice as much as ever was paid before for a single painting at auction.

The seven paintings brought $2,186,800, topping the 65 lots of the Georges Lurcy collection that brought a total of $1,702,000 at an auction in New York last year.

"This will put up prices in the art world everywhere," said Peter Wilson, who auctioned off the paintings at Sotheby's.

The purchasers were all art dealers, six of them Americans. Georges Keller of New York was the high bidder for the record-breaking Cezanne.

All the paintings were part of the collection of Jacob Goldschmidt, the late banker, who had ordered them sold in his will. He had been forced to abandon the collection when he fled Nazi Germany in 1933 and part of it was auctioned by the Nazis.

federal workers. Many Clinton residents work at atomic installations in nearby Oak Ridge.

Eisenhower's news conference assertion that school problems are primarily the responsibility of local authorities left board members seething, although they took no official notice of his remarks.

COURT RULES JESUIT SCHOOL MAY RETAIN TV

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals has rejected a contention that a Jesuit educational institution is ineligible to hold a broadcast license.

The ruling affirmed the award of a license to Loyola University in New Orleans for a Channel 4 television station.

The legal right of Loyola to hold a broadcast license was challenged by James A. Noe & Co., an unsuccessful applicant, and by a predominantly Protestant organization—Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State. The group, not a party to the action itself, filed a friend-of-the-court brief urging the court to overturn the award, made by the Federal Communications Commission.

Withdraws Appeal
The Times-Picayune Publishing Co. also was an original applicant for the Channel 4 permit. The court said The Times-Picayune had withdrawn its appeal under an understanding with the Justice Department "in connection with an antitrust problem."

The Noe Co. headed by James A. Noe, a former governor of Louisiana, contended that Loyola by reason of its connection with the Society of Jesus is a representative of an alien within the meaning of the Communications Act. A section of that law makes foreign control of an American broadcasting station illegal.

MORE MASSES SAID FOR POPE
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Funeral masses were celebrated Thursday for Pope Pius XII in St. Peter's Basilica and at a chapel near the pontiff's tomb in the grottoes of the great church.

Bricklayers and carpenters built barriers to isolate the Sistine Chapel and adjoining Vatican buildings to be occupied by the College of Cardinals during the conclave to elect his successor.

The workmen were arranging living quarters for the cardinals, who cannot leave the conclave area from the time they enter Oct. 25 until a new Pope is elected.

Pope Pius XII was elected in a day. This time the Vatican is taking no chances, preparing for a prolonged meeting. Vans are moving in beds, and kitchens are being set up in Vatican courtyards.

Other workmen in St. Peter's are putting up stands for final week-end funeral services for Pius XII.

LIONS CLUB
FETES SONS
AT BANQUET

Sons of members of the Taneytown Lions Club were guests at the club's annual father and son banquet Tuesday at Taney Inn. J. Alfred Hellebride presented the program.

The evening was presided over by President Frank T. Dunham and opened with an invocation by Murray M. Baumgardner and group singing led by Singleton E. Remsburg. Harry I. Reindollar accompanied at the piano. The Lions and their guests were served a roast turkey dinner. A visiting Lion from Westminster was Charles Conaway.

Three new members were inducted by Harry B. Dougherty. They are William T. Albaugh, sponsored by Ralph W. Stonesifer; John T. Hottinger, recruited by President Dunham, and Donald R. Lawler, who entered under the aegis of Carroll L. Wantz.

Show Films
The program consisted of three films, one on game fishing, another an episode in the improbable existence of Woody Woodpecker, and the third an Abbott and Costello comic.

Between reels, which were shown by Merle S. Ohler, President Dunham spoke in promotion of the CARE rural school building project to be administered by Lions of Columbia, South America, through funds donated by Multiple District 22, of which Taneytown is a member club.

He urged that gifts made by Lions and friends whom they are able to influence be made by November 15 to Chairman Robert W. Feeser.

"PAT" WEAVER,
YOUR INSURANCE
MAN, SAYS:

The Family Life Insurance Policy covers all the members of the family. There is only one policy and one premium. This Family Security Plan has captured the imagination of the insurance buying public, judging from the response to it.

For many years the Casualty companies were searching for one contract that would incorporate into it coverages that could only have been obtained by several policies. The Home Owner's Policy and the Personal Property Floater are two of the results of this effort.

This same thinking permeated the Life Insurance industry: the desire to broaden coverage, resulting in the Family Security Plan. Coverage for all family members, with a single premium, makes this a contract of efficiency and convenience.

The Family Life Insurance Policy sold by this agency provides basic insurance for the family breadwinner: double indemnity, waiver of premium, plus cash values, give real security to the average wage-earner. For the wife and children, term insurance until the policy-owner is sixty-five, or until the children are twenty-two, provides basic coverage during the average family's expensive period. Conversion privileges to a permanent type of insurance for the wife or children add to the attractiveness of this policy. Any child born after the effective date of the policy is automatically covered, and notice of birth or evidence of insurability need not be submitted.

For details of the Family Life Insurance Policy, and of any kind of insurance whether life, fire, auto, or casualty, contact

END MOURNING FOR LATE POPE NEXT SUNDAY

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The symbolic empty coffin of Pope Pius XII was returned today to the center of St. Peter's Basilica for a Requiem Mass beginning the last three days of mourning.

The coffin had been in the Chapel of the Choir since the late pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church was buried Monday in the grottoes beneath the basilica. It was moved from the chapel at one side of the huge church to a position before the Altar of the Cathedral Chair.

Marcello Cardinal Mimmi celebrated the Mass. He was assisted by four other cardinals—Gregory Peter Agagianian, Angelo Roncalli, Joseph Wendel and James Francis McIntyre, the latter the archbishop of Los Angeles.

Mass On Sunday

The nine-day mourning will end Sunday when U.S. Secretary of State Dulles and other representatives of foreign governments will attend the Requiem Mass.

Dulles is scheduled to fly into Rome Saturday. Unconfirmed reports circulated in the Vatican that he might hurry to St. Peter's to attend the 10 a.m. Mass Saturday in a private capacity.

In London, flags were at half-staff on public buildings as the official Solemn Requiem Mass for the Pope was celebrated at Westminster Cathedral. Queen Elizabeth was represented by the Duke of Norfolk, Britain's Earl Marshal and premier duke, who is one of the country's leading Catholic laymen.

TALENTED PASTOR

REYNOLDSBURG, Ohio (AP) — While getting his education, the Rev. Mr. Harold Hill learned carpentry on summer construction jobs.

It came in handy again recently when his Presbyterian church here couldn't afford to build both a parsonage and an addition to house classrooms. With the help of his family and members of the congregation, the young minister built the parsonage himself.

CONFIDENCE VOTED HEAD IN LEBANON

BEIRUT (AP) — Premier Rashid Karami's coalition cabinet won a unanimous vote of confidence in Parliament today on a promise to maintain Lebanon as an "independent sovereign Arab state."

Karami's four-man cabinet — a compromise which ended the five-month crisis — was approved 50-0. Sixteen deputies were absent.

The Karami called his cabinet a government of "national rescue." He pledged the government to erase misunderstanding among citizens.

"The citizen must feel that his ruler is unbiased, that his judge is impartial and that his government official is above suspicion," Karami told Parliament.

Follow Chehab Line
Karami said that in both domestic and foreign policy his government will follow the line broadly laid down by President Fuad Chehab in his inauguration speech Sept. 23. Chehab called for friendship with Arab states and withdrawal of U. S. forces.

The last of the U. S. forces called in last summer by then President Camille Chamoun are expected to be gone by the end of the month. Chamoun then was the target of a rebellion led by Karami and others who objected to his pro-Western course.

Beirut clearly was approaching normal again after five months of rebellion.

The Karami government is half Moslem and half Christian. Karami and Foreign Minister Hussein Oweini are Moslem. Deputy Premier Pierre Gemayel and Minister of Interior Raymond Edde are Christian.

WHITE SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The Little Rock Private School Corporation announced today it will open an all-white high school for senior students only next Monday.

Dr. T. J. Raney, president of the corporation, signed a lease agreement this morning for a former University of Arkansas building with 32 rooms and said it would be used for the senior classes.

High school students have been idle here since Gov. Orval E. Faubus closed the four city secondary schools Sept. 3. About 600 students have found other schools. Another 3,000 have been without instruction for seven weeks.

Raney also announced for the first time the total collections donated to the corporation for the private schools. He said to date they totaled $61,841.25.

It has been estimated that it would require $15,000 weekly to operate schools for all public high school students. But a lesser sum would be required for the senior class only.

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Russell B. Hummel, 44, a Pottstown policeman for 11 years, is being held without bail today for Montgomery County Court action on charges of stealing parking meter funds.

President

The Eisenhowers will spend Saturday and Sunday in Denver visiting with the First Lady's ailing mother, Mrs. John S. Doud. Mrs. Eisenhower will stay on for a time after the President leaves.

Major Speeches

Except for a brief airport speech during the 1956 campaign, it will be Eisenhower's first visit to the Colorado capital since he suffered a heart attack at his mother-in-law's home Sept. 24, 1955.

The major battleground of Eisenhower's campaign tour is California. He will be there Monday and Tuesday, with major speeches in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The final address of the campaign will be in Chicago next Wednesday evening.

There was no advance word as to what extent Eisenhower would deal with foreign policy on this tour. In any event, indications were he would leave it mainly to Nixon and other Republicans to swat back at Democratic criticism in that field.

Sends Wire To Nixon

Eisenhower, in a telegram to the campaigning Nixon, said "our side" must reply to opposition attacks on day-to-day handling of foreign policy—as distinguished from criticism of the broad objectives, such as dedication to peace and the battle against Communist expansion.

"No one can do this more effectively than you," Eisenhower told Nixon.

COLLEGE GETS $5 MILLION

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — The Marquis Foundation has given a five-million dollar unrestricted endowment to Lafayette College, Allan P. Kirby, college trustee and president of the foundation, announced today.

Another million has been reserved for building needs at the institution, he said.

The foundation was founded in 1950 to acquire and develop properties for the benefit of the school. All its directors are Lafayette trustees.

The college said it knew about the grant last February but it didn't know how it was to be spent until the trustees met at the college today.

A college representative said the gift was the largest increase in capital funds in the 126-year history of the college. It was believed to be the largest ever made to a four-year college.

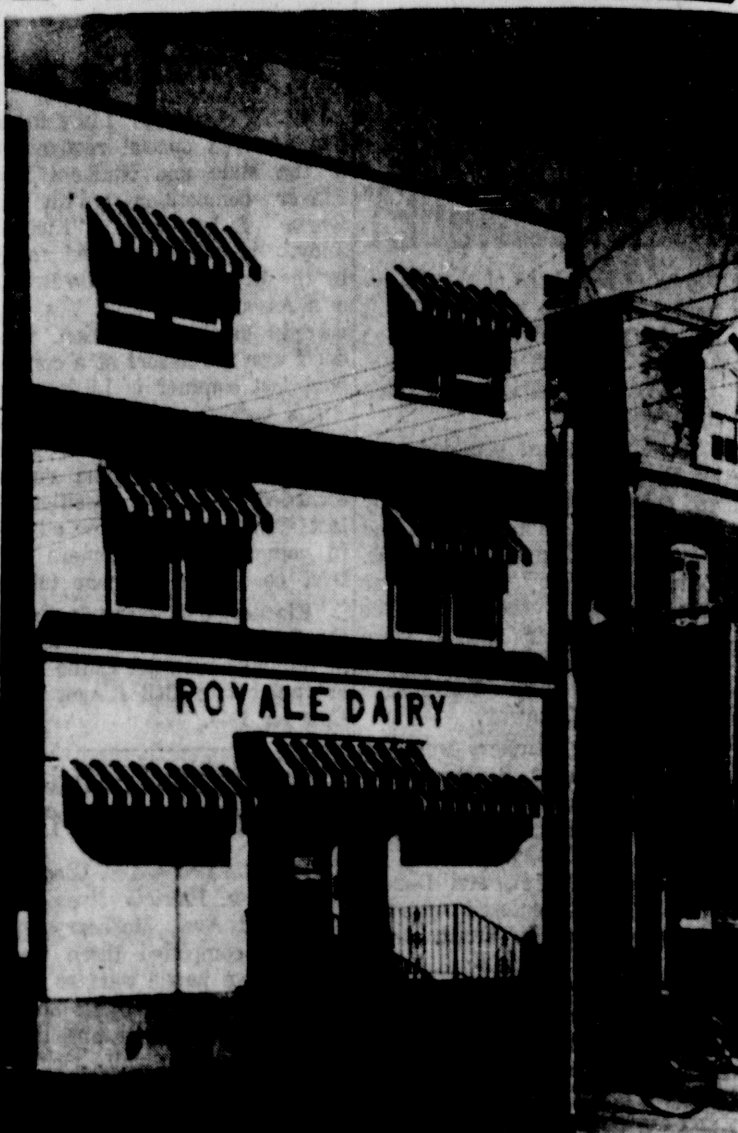

Income from the five-million-dollar endowment will be used to boost teachers' salaries, Kirby said. Also, two $100,000 funds will be set up for the library and scholarships.

RAINBOW ROOF

BERLINGTON, Wis. (AP) — A pavilion, capable of sheltering up to 7,000 pilgrims in the event of inclement weather, was completed recently at the Franciscan Monastery and College near here.

The structure's laminated arches support 30,000 square feet of color fiber glass roof ranging in color from green, blue and yellow to a background of red.

New Italian Sausage At Hoagie House

There's always something new at the Hoagie House at 59 Chambersburg St. — and you can count on each new concoction being as tasty and popular as the last.

Italian sausage, made by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodward, proprietors of the establishment for the last six months, is brand new and rapidly building up a big demand. It is on sale either in sandwich form or by the pound.

Another new product at the eating establishment that developed the "Mamma, Papa and the Baby Hoagie" and then came through with the "Satellite," is the "pizzaburger." Catching on fast with the customers at the Hoagie House, the "pizzaburger" is a combination of hamburger, onions and peppers with just the right amount of pizza sauce.

That "Satellite" hoagie, by the way, was one that can "really put a patron into orbit."

The eating place in the first block of Chambersburg St. that has averaged sales of 1,500 to 2,000 hoagies a month, is operated by "Jerry and Woodie," as Mr. and Mrs. Woodward are more popularly known.

The Hoagie House will accept any size order, caters to big ones and will deliver any order of $2 or more.

These new specialties are in addition to the standard offerings on the Hoagie House menu — tasty bar-b-q's, soft drinks, most of the standard sandwiches and ice cream.

The "Hoagie House" is proving popular as a snack spot morning, afternoon or evening or after the show. It's a good spot to call, too, to have delicious sandwiches, pizzas or other special concoctions delivered to your home for leisurely enjoyment in front of the television set or after a game of cards.

Year-Long Sale Held By Sheffer, Inc.

A year-long sale with special store-wide savings on farm implements and refrigerators and freezers is continuing at the Melvin J. Sheffer, Inc., business places in Littlestown and Hanover.

The sale began in January and will continue through December and constitutes the business's observance of the 65th anniversary of its founding.

Now operated by members of the third generation of the Sheffer family, the business dates from August, 1893, when John Henry Sheffer and David M. Frey formed a partnership for the operation of a hay and farming implement business in Hanover.

With IH Since '16
John Sheffer had a son, Melvin J., who took over at his father's death and continued the business with his uncle, David Frey. The hay business was dropped a short time later and more attention was given to the sale of farm implements, buggies and fertilizers. Forty-six years ago, Melvin Sheffer took over complete operation of the business and his first contracts with International Harvester were signed in 1916.

By 1943 the business employed 10 persons and now it provides employment for more than three times that number in the Hanover and the Littlestown establishments. The Littlestown business was opened in 1945. Four years later an addition to the front of the former structure doubled the floor space to 5,500 square feet and included an air conditioned show room and parts department where more than 5,000 repair parts are stored and sold.

New Tractor Line
New offices were added and the shop was doubled in size. The glass and concrete front of the Littlestown store is of the familiar pylon style used by International Harvester dealers.

Robert S. Sheffer, now president of the firm, is a grandson of the founder. His brother, John M. Sheffer, Hanover, is the secretary-treasurer and Mrs. John Sheffer is the vice president.

While the anniversary sale continues, Melvin J. Sheffer Inc., is introducing the new line of International tractors and is displaying the most modern cornpickers as the corn harvesting season gets into full swing.

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Two Clearfield County men were sentenced to prison Thursday for stealing $1.50 worth of gasoline.

Judge Samuel Rossiter of Erie County Court imposed sentence on John J. 35, and Frederick Martell Jr., 20, both of Leontes Mills.

The pair pleaded guilty to larceny in the theft of gasoline from a truck at Shade's Service Station in Union City Oct. 9.

It was the most rugged multiple assignment ever undertaken by wildlife reporters. And what they brought back from the roof of the world, to be projected in gorgeous Technicolor, is hailed as the most remarkable record of wild animal and bird life yet secured for the theater screen.

Lawn Mower Service Time Has Arrived

The grass-cutting season is over at most homes in this area and that means this is a good time to re-condition the lawn mowers and put them in tip-top shape for the winter months.

That is just what a good many customers of the Alexander Lawn Mower Service at Fairfield are doing nowadays.

After his third season in the lawn mower business which started out as a part-time lawn mower serving operation, Raymond R. Alexander expanded his business this year to include a sales department for regular and power lawn mowers and also handled the agency for the Wheel-Horse garden tractor.

With the peak of the lawn mower business over for this season, Mr. Alexander has turned back to his year-around role as Fairfield's "trouble shooter." Besides driving a school bus for the Fairfield Joint School System and operating a bus route for Gettysburg Shoe Company workers, Mr. Alexander finds time to be a plumber, electrician, carpenter, television and radio repair and serviceman.

Mr. Alexander's work day begins at 5 a.m. when he starts for Chambersburg with a bus that will pick up workers for the Gettysburg Shoe Company plant and deliver them before starting on his school bus route in time to get the kiddies to their classes on schedule at Fairfield. In the afternoon he reruns the same routes to take home the school wildlife reporters labored and faced the hazards of their calling with the true naturalist's passion to show creation in action, to clarify some of nature's exciting mysteries.

They roved by bush plane, by canoe, by dog sled and whaleboat, by hard slogging footpower — the nine men and the three wives who shared their every thrill-packed and nerve-testing adventure.

Scientists say that the chemicals in our bodies are worth only a few cents. God says that we belong to the highest order of His creation, made in His own image.

Statistics lose us in a multitude of more than two and a half billion people living in the world today. God tells us that He knows us as individuals. Each of us has a place in His plan. No one else can fill it, because no two people are exactly alike.

Friends say that they love us, but that love sometimes fails. God's love has given us our families, our friends, our possessions, our world, our very lives . . . and He gave us His only Son. It was He who taught us to call the great God of Creation our Father.

The Church of Christ invites us to come, to worship our Heavenly Father, and be forgiven by Him. Then we may reevaluate ourselves as individual children of God, not merely as part of a multitude.

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

Luke 3:15-22

Key Verse: I have come to do thy will, O God, Hebrews 10:7.

When Jesus was about thirty years of age, He went down to be baptized by John, the Baptist. The two men were second cousins, but there is no indication that they were acquainted and the event had certainly not been planned. Jesus must have known instinctively that the time had come for Him to leave His quiet home and vocation at Nazareth and enter the high calling for which He was destined.

What did Jesus' baptism mean to Him? It was the first public announcement of His position as a follower of God and His claim to Messiahship. It was His way of identifying Himself with sinful humanity, although He was sinless. From that moment He became the sin-bearer of mankind. The voice from heaven saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" was a confirmation to Jesus that He was doing His Father's will and was a reminder to all who heard that Jesus is truly the Son of God.

3 Accomplishments
This quiet but dramatic baptism by the Jordan which marked the beginning of Jesus' ministry accomplished three things: the anointment of Jesus as the promised Messiah; the gift of power from the Holy Spirit; and the confirmation of His Sonship. After years of preparation Jesus' call had come! The purpose of His call and mission was the thing that was uppermost in His mind and heart.

John's preaching naturally created a more intense Messianic expectation. His emphasis was entirely different than Jesus'; he was urging sinners to repent and his warnings were resented, especially by Herod who lived an adulterous life with Herodias. Herod cast John the Baptist into prison as a result of these accusations.

We do not always want to know God's will for us and avoid finding out because we are too concerned about what we want for ourselves. It takes complete dedication to devote life and work to fulfill God's mission for the redemption of mankind. Slowly God plan for Jesus was being comprehended by Him.

Three Choices
Doing God's will regardless of consequences involved several things for Jesus: 1. A moral choice, whereby He knew He had come to save the lost — "For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth." (John 18:37); 2. A choice regardless of consequences. Many selfish prayers are wafted heavenward because prayer is sometimes thought to get us what we want. Jesus' simple words "Thy will be done" show perfect obedience in spite of circumstances. It is hard for human beings to understand what complete selflessness means. 3. A choice without any compromise. When Peter tried to restrain Jesus from taking that last trip to Jerusalem to endure pain, ignominy, and the cross, Jesus turned on him and said, "Get behind me, Satan!" He remained steadfast before Pilate when other men may have changed their answers adroitly to save themselves.

But whether our Christian faith involves persecution or prosperity, suffering or comfort, we must trust God so completely that we shall be ready to do His will as did Jesus. This may not fit in with the popular, easy-going religion that calls only for church going, praying, and having fellowship with other Christians. We must remember that Christian baptism is administered "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."

"21" GOES OFF TV THURSDAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The NBC television quiz show "21" was discontinued after Thursday night's performance, a victim of rigging charges by former contestants on several TV quiz programs.

It thus joined two other big-money giveaway programs in oblivion—Datto and The $64,000 Challenge.

Plan New Show
A spokesman for Pharmaceuticals, Inc., sponsor of "21," said the show's viewer rating had been falling steadily in the last five weeks. He said the company had concluded that the widespread quiz show probe was the reason for the waning interest.

Pharmaceuticals, Inc., said it will replace "21" with Concentration, an audience participation show that awards mostly merchandise prizes. The program — 8:30 to 9 p.m., New York time, Thursdays — will have "21's" emcee, Jack Barry.

ABILENE READY FOR ONE-NIGHT VISIT BY IKE

ABILENE, Kan. (AP) — "The Abilene White House," answers the telephone operator at the Sunflower Hotel.

The Sunflower doesn't have the Ionic portico or the famed Blue and East reception rooms of the White House, but tonight it will have President Eisenhower. For Abilene that's enough.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower can't stay in the frame house on the South Side, where Ike lived as a boy. It has been a national monument since 1947 and, anyway, the Eisenhowers brought along too many people.

Take Entire Hotel
When hotel manager Mike Biggs finished setting aside rooms for the President and his wife, press secretary James Hagerty and members of the White House staff, he had only six left.

"It got so bad that some of the Secret Service agents had to be moved out into private homes," Biggs said. "I guess the press boys are going to sleep on cots wherever we can put them."

The President is only going to stay the night—a stopover on a nationwide tour. But the preparations started two weeks ago and more than likely there'll be hammering coming on when Ike's motorcade enters town at 4:20 p.m.

The Eisenhowers will tour the Eisenhower Museum and the boyhood home, then will visit with old friends and top state Republicans.

They leave Saturday morning for Denver.

The Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Gotwalt and son, Kenneth, were among 6,000 persons attending the pageant given at Zemo Mosque on Sunday as a highlight of the general conference of the EUB Church in Harrisburg. Two performances of the pageant had to be presented to accommodate the crowd.

Guests Wednesday of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gotwalt at the parsonage were Mr. and Mrs. George Haines and daughter, Jane, Heliam.

Falls are the second most frequent source of accidental death in the United States, according to the National Safety Council. They cause nearly 21,000 deaths a year. No. 1 accidental killer: motor vehicle accidents.

Accidents are the leading cause of death to persons 1-36 years of age.

Motor vehicle accidents take the lives of a person every 14 minutes. One person is injured in a motor vehicle mishap every 23 seconds.

More than twice as many males as females are killed each year in accidents.

Each week 81,000 persons are injured in home accidents — an average of an injury every eight seconds. More than four million persons are hurt in home accidents annually, and about 28,000 persons are killed.

Workers are killed more often in accidents off the job than on. It says 31,800 workers die annually off the job as compared with 14,200 on-the-job accidental deaths.

About the same number of persons were killed in auto accidents in 1957 as 21 years previously. However, the mileage death rate (number vehicle miles) dropped from 15.1 to 5.9 in 1957.

About 28,000 persons die annually in home accidents.

NEW YORK (AP) — Selection of a young English actor, Ian Bannen, for a role in the London production of "Long Day's Journey Into Night," repeats the casting of the same role in the Broadway production of the Eugene O'Neill drama.

The part was played here by Jason Robards Jr., who went to it after playing off-Broadway in another O'Neill play, "The Iceman Cometh." Bannen played the "Iceman" character in a similar bandbox showing off the main London theatrical district.

Say Politicians Should Not Talk Foreign Policy

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have suggested that political campaigners refrain from debating foreign policy. Each suggested an exception. The exceptions seem to cancel each other out.

Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday: "There is a very clear distinction to be made with respect to foreign policy as I see it. One is the policy and one is its operation. . . .

"I do not, by any means, decry intelligent questioning and criticism of any particular point. But when it comes to the policy that is being established, I think it has been standing pretty well on its own feet for a long time."

Dulles Statement
Dulles told his news conference the day before: "I do not think that it is wise that current aspects of foreign policy should be injected in the campaign. I think there are some basic problems of foreign policy which can be discussed in terms of underlying principles."

That would seem to leave Republican and Democratic orators in the congressional campaign in a dilemma. If they discuss current aspects, it would be all right with Eisenhower but not with Dulles. If they talk about established basic policy, Eisenhower might object but not Dulles.

However, the conflict may be more apparent than real. Usually, in such cases Eisenhower's stock comment is that he and Dulles keep in touch and always see eye to eye.

Not Impressed
And anyway, few politicians of either party ever show much inclination to avoid discussing foreign policy if it means possible votes.

Eisenhower and Dulles themselves had quite a bit to say about foreign policy in the 1952 campaign.

Eisenhower hit the issue hard in campaign speeches. In Detroit on Oct. 24, 1952, for example he said his first job, if elected, would be to end the war in Korea. He added: "That job requires a personal trip to Korea. I shall make that trip. Only in that way could I learn how best to serve the American people in the cause of peace. I shall go to Korea."

It is generally conceded that Ei-

BOURGUIBA DECLARES HE IS FOR WEST

TUNIS (AP)—President Habib Bourguiba defiantly threw in his lot with the West Thursday in a bitter attack on the United Arab Republic. He broke diplomatic relations with the U.A.R. Wednesday.

"Yes, I am Western," Bourguiba declared in a speech to the Tunisian Constituent Assembly explaining his move, "and I will remain so."

The president of the young North African republic did not mention President Nasser by name, but he ripped into Nasser policies. Bourguiba bluntly said the Egyptians had collaborated in an assassination plot against him.

Israel Enemy
"The primary enemy, one has the habit of saying, is Israel," Bourguiba said. "However, why is it that this state (Israel) is quiet while the Arabs are killing one another."

Bourguiba professed confidence in the outcome of this test of strength between him and Nasser, strong man of the U.A.R., whose ambition is a united Arab world under his leadership.

He said he felt the Arab League some day would be reconstituted on more solid and sincere foundations.

senhower's pledge to visit Korea, fulfilled between his election and his inauguration, was a big vote-getter.

Dulles did most of the drafting of the foreign policy plank in the 1952 Republican campaign platform. It lambasted Truman administration foreign policy as having, among other things, "abandoned friendly nations" after World War II and of having "traded our overwhelming victory for a new enemy and for new oppressions and new wars which were quick to come."

Republican campaigners this year probably would welcome Dulles' idea that current aspects of foreign policy should be barred from political debate. That would rule out virtually all criticism of Eisenhower administration foreign policy, since the administration in power always is responsible for the current conduct of foreign affairs.

Swartz Trial Is Near Conclusion

SMETHPORT, Pa. (AP)—The forgery trial of Vincent Swartz, 52, moved toward conclusion today. Swartz is charged with shortweighing the state of nearly $3,000 worth of cinders delivered in McKean County.

Both the defense and prosecuting attorneys were to present summations today in the Schuylkill County man's case. Testimony ended Thursday with Swartz the lone defense witness.

Swartz is the second man to be tried on charges of cutting down on cinder deliveries in 1956. John Harris Jr., 32, of Packville, was convicted Oct. 9. He has filed a new trial motion.

Politics

EMPORIUM, Pa. (AP)—"It takes more than four years of a good pogam to cue a problem; it takes continuity," Gov. George Leader, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, said today.

"Without follow-through, the gains this administration has made in mental health could be wiped out by just a few months of neglect," he said in a speech prepared for a campaign tour of Cameron, McKean and Warren counties.

Mayor David L. Lawrence, Democratic candidate for governor, has promised to continue the mental health program, Leader said, and that is why it is so important he be elected.

Leader said legislative appropriation cuts crippled the program.

"Part of our program—the heart of it, really—was the establishment of mental health clinics. This was where the Republicans cut most drastically. And the result has been to halt our mental health clinic program," the governor said.

"It is typical of the hypocrisy displayed by the Republican leaders that in this year's platform, the GOP says it favors the establishment of mental health clinics."

Tunisia, a new member of the league, touched off the current crisis between the two Arab countries in Cairo Saturday. The Tunisian delegation accused the U.A.R. of trying to dominate the league. The U.A.R. walked out of the meeting.

Bourguiba again accused the U.A.R. of sheltering and giving active aid to Salah ben Youssef, Bourguiba's former political ally who fled Tunis for exile in Cairo where he preaches the policies of Nasser. Youssef also has plotted actively Bourguiba's assassination, the president said.

EPISCOPAL BISHOPS ARE REBUFFED

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—An antisegregation statement by Episcopal bishops was shouldered aside Thursday night by rank-file churchmen.

The revolt was led by laymen and pastors from Virginia, where the denomination was founded in this country.

Joined by other members of the House of Deputies, at the church's triennial general convention, they pushed through a substitute draft resolution which omits the bishops' call for an end to racial separation.

Oppose Capital Punishment
But it does urge Christians to "cleanse themselves of all spirit of racial discrimination" and to seek establishment of full opportunities for all persons in education, housing, employment and public accommodation.

As the convention neared its close today, the deputies also approved a pronouncement by the bishops opposing capital punishment and urging a worldwide disarmament agreement.

Rebuff To Bishops
All convention actions must be voted on by both the 650-member House of Deputies and 190-man House of Bishops, the governing congress of the church.

Adoption of the modified race resolution by the deputies marked a sharp rebuff to the bishops. Tossed out was their statement on the subject urging elimination of racial discrimination and separation.

GIVE PRETZEL PUSH AS LOW CALORIE FOOD

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The latest twist in the pretzel industry is to push to get the pretzel out of the saloon into the salon—the reducing salon, that is.

"The pretzel is a low calorie, high protein diet item," said Donald McCollough, Lancaster, Pa., pretzel maker, today. "Wonderful way to fill your stomach without adding pounds."

"Let's face it. In the old days, the pretzel was strictly for beer drinkers. It's no longer a barroom item. It's a family snack. Why, around Lancaster, doctors

USSR CHARGES TRESPASSING

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union again has charged U.S. planes with trespassing on Soviet territory for reconnaissance purposes, this time over the Bering Strait and eastern Siberia.

A note handed U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson Jr. Thursday charged an American military plane twice deliberately invaded Soviet air space near Ratamov (Big Diomed) Island in the Bering Strait Sept. 30.

Other flights over Kamchatka Peninsula, the Kurile Islands and in the area of Chukotsk Peninsula in July, August and September also were charged. The note said these were a "premeditated invasion . . . for the purpose of reconnaissance."

The Kuriles are a chain of islands extending northeast of Japan. The Kamchatka and Chukotsk peninsulas just eastward from Siberia.

prescribe pretzels and ginger ale for babies with upset stomachs."

Heads Pretzel Men
McCollough was elected to a second term Thursday as president of the National Pretzel Bakers Institute at its 18th annual convention.

McCollough figures there's going to be a boom in pretzels if they catch on with folks trying to reduce.

"It's a hundred million dollar a year business," he said. "But it'll be up to between three and five hundred million dollars in the next five years. Why, business has increased 25 per cent in the last five years."

FRENCHMAN COMES TO U. S., SEES FASHIONS

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Neither New York skyscrapers nor Texas plains evoke undue amazement in the mind of Pierre Cardin, boy wonder of the Paris couture. After a five-week tour of the United States, the youthful Cardin exclaims:

"Such big women you have here in America!"

Pondering further on queen-size Americana, he adds:

"And they all look so expensive!"

Sensation In France
Young Cardin, whose recent Paris collection was hailed as the sensation of the French openings, was invited to America by the pattern company for which he has designed a series of high-fashion dress patterns. During his tour he visited Boston, Washington, Detroit, Chicago, Los Angeles, Seattle, Houston, Atlanta and St. Louis, in addition to New York. Says he: "Everything is different here from Europe—especially the women. Here you see fashion in the street. In Paris you must go to the couture salons for this. I have seen more French fashions in America than ever I have seen in ing room tables, next to the bread and cracker baskets.

"They're great with tomato soup," said McCollough. "But number one item among the new uses for pretzels is pretzel pie crust. Crumble them up, use it to top a pie. Great."

France. Here you put them in the show windows. There we keep them carefully out of sight of the public, each designer guarding his own creations."

Traditions Topple
Cardin also topples a few traditions when he remarks on American hats:

"American women are much more hat-conscious than French women. In Paris today you see women walking down the street bare-headed, but here every well-dressed woman wears a hat. It is wonderful. They look so much more chic. No costume is complete without a hat, and Americans seem to understand this."

PARISH WOMEN
PLAN BAZAAR
IN NOVEMBER

St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women met on Wednesday evening in the parish hall, at which time plans were made for serving dinners on Thanksgiving Day, the Friday and Saturday following for the annual three-day Thanksgiving bazaar. Mrs. Ivan D. Rickrode will be in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Bernard M. Selby will be in charge of the dining room. All women of the parish who can help in either the kitchen or dining room, full or part time, are asked to give their names and the hours they will be available for work, to the committee chairman, Mrs. Mary O'Brien. She will again be in charge of the parcel post table, and the pastor, the Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle, who outlined the plans, asked all members of the parish to contact their friends, those in town and away from town, for contributions to this part of the bazaar. There will be a table of fancy work, a cake and candy table and other features, the details of which will be decided upon a special meeting on Sunday, November 2, after the evening service, in the parish hall. The same soliciting committees who contacted parishioners last year are asked to serve in the same capacity this year.

Mrs. Clyde H. Rohrbaugh, president, was in charge of the business meeting which opened with prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel. Mrs. Regina Arter, secretary, and Mrs. Mark Redding, treasurer, reported and Mrs. Redding also read the monthly message from the national president of National Council. The resignation of Miss Jane Rang as youth chairman was accepted with regret and Mrs. C. Donald Bowser was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Party October 30

Mrs. Rickrode announced that the recently held crab cake supper was a huge success. It was voted to pay the bill for the new dishes purchased for the church kitchen from the supper proceeds. The president will investigate the possibility of securing a file for use in the parish school for medical records. This decision was made after it was learned there is need for such a file. Or if there is someone who has a file or filing cabinet which they would like to donate, it will be gratefully accepted.

It was announced that the quarterly open meeting of the Coneyago Deanery Council will be held on Sunday at 2 p.m. in St. Vincent de Paul parish hall, Hanover. Mrs. George Weaver, president. Sneeringer, a member of the council, had undergone surgery at the Polyclinic Hospital, Harrisburg, and is expected to return home the coming weekend. Members were asked to remember her with cards.

TINY NATIONS
PROD BIG 3 ON NUCLEAR TESTS

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — A move grew among the U.N.'s small nations to prod the Big Three into working out a common plan for halting nuclear weapon tests. The idea is to get the Geneva talks off to a good start.

Sweden is spearheading the move, which has received enthusiastic support from many small countries and was noted with interest by the major Western powers.

Swedish Foreign Minister Osten Unden has pointed out that there are marked similarities in the three rival resolutions to halt nuclear tests authored by the United States, India and the Soviet Union.

Need Wide Support

Unden suggested to the 81-nation Political Committee debating disarmament that the three resolutions be molded into one proposal that would win unanimous U.N. support and enhance the chances of success at Geneva.

Liberia, Yugoslavia, Greece and a parade of other small nations echoed his view. They pointed out that no U.N. disarmament resolution that failed to win approval of all the nuclear powers has ever gotten anywhere.

A representative of one of the big Western powers said such a move would be admirable if it did not prejudice the position of either side when they sit down at Geneva Oct. 31 to negotiate a ban on weapons blasts and ways to enforce it.

Three Positions

The Soviet Union has been insisting that only a call for an immediate, unconditional halt to tests would contribute to the success of the Geneva parity.

The United States and Britain refuse to agree to a permanent ban on tests until agreement can be reached on an inspection and control system to ensure against violations. They have offered to join the Soviet Union in a one-year stoppage while efforts are made to agree on a control system.

1949 WAS BIG TEST YEAR FOR
MGR. STENGEL

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Casey Stengel has gone back to his California home for the winter still enjoying the glow of the Yankees' come from behind victory over Milwaukee in the World Series.

But was that victory, after being down 3-1 in the best-of-7 series, the greatest in the career of the Yankee manager? Stengel and all the Yankee front office brass, in the dressing room after the 6-2 triumph over the Braves in the final game, asserted that it was but could it be they had forgotten 1949, Stengel's first year as Yankee manager?

Trailed Red Sox

That was the year the Yankees, one game behind, had to beat the Boston Red Sox in the last two games of the regular season to win the American League pennant.

Stengel then was more or less after being dedicated by Gov. Leader.

The governor and several other dignitaries took part Thursday in officially opening the Ridgway Area Psychiatric Center. It will serve Cameron, Clearfield, Elk, Jefferson, McKean and Potter counties.

NIXON, TRUMAN
ON NEAR PATHS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Truman and Vice President Nixon will be working roughly the same territory next week while stumping for rival Democratic and Republican tickets.

Meanwhile, Truman was due here today to begin a two-day visit while President Eisenhower headed West to begin a round of campaigning.

A schedule announced by the Democratic National Committee today puts Truman in New Castle, Pa., next Tuesday, Oct. 21, and in Wilmington, Del., next Wednesday. Truman then will go to Boston Thursday.

A Nixon itinerary listed appearances for the vice president in Wilmington and Baltimore Tuesday and stops Wednesday in Hartford, Conn., Burlington, Vt., and Providence, R. I. Nixon also was billed for visits to Mineola and Garden City, N. Y., on Thursday before swinging out to Wisconsin, South Dakota and Nebraska.

Some may recall his remarks at the club's victory banquet that year. The gist of what he said was that it was a good thing the Yankees won because "I might not have been back."

Although the Yankees were picked to finish third that season behind the Red Sox and Cleveland Indians, Stengel had the Bombers out in front from the start, despite the loss of Joe DiMaggio for the first 65 games and an unprecedented total of 71 injuries to various players.

Nevertheless the Yankees seemed doomed late in September when they lost the lead to the Red Sox. The Bostonians came into Yankee Stadium for the last two games of the season enjoying a one-game lead.

In the first game, the Red Sox took a 4-0 lead before the Yankees rallied and finally won 5-4 on Johnny Lindell's home run in the eighth inning.

The Yankees broke open the deciding game with the Sox the next day with four runs in the eighth inning. That gave Stengel and the Yankees a 5-0 lead. The Red Sox came up with three runs in the ninth before Vic Raschi could nail down the victory and the pennant for the Yankees.

EUB GENERAL CONFERENCE TO END TODAY

By BOB HOLTON
HARRISBURG (AP)—The General conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church ended today with many delegates at odds on just how much is known about radioactive fallout.

The question came up yesterday when the conference adopted a resolution calling for the halting of all nuclear testing in the United States and other countries.

Several delegates objected strongly to a section of the resolution which claimed detonation of atomic or hydrogen blasts constituted a contamination of the air.

"Keep Hands Off"

Emma S. Tausant, a retired judge from Quincy, Mass., and one of the 450 delegates to the general conference, argued that such language does not belong in the resolution because the denomination had no actual proof such a condition exists.

"We should keep our hands off something we don't know enough about," she said.

The resolution as passed, stated: "No nation has the right to contaminate the air that belongs to all peoples or to devitalize the land or tamper with the genetic health of man himself."

Only odds and ends of a voluminous business routine remained unfinished as the delegates from the United States, Canada and four other countries stepped up their pace to close activities tonight.

REDS RELEASE BODIES OF SIX

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—The bodies of six U.S. airmen killed when their plane crashed in Soviet Armenia are being flown to America for identification.

The bodies have been in Wiesbaden since the Soviet Union handed them over Sept. 24. Failure to establish identities by now indicated they were burned beyond recognition when the C130 Hercules transport plane crashed and burned.

The Air Force said "additional facilities to assist in identification are available" in the United States. The announcement did not specify where the bodies would be taken in America.

The unarmed plane carrying 17 airmen was flying over Turkey when Soviet fighters forced it across the Soviet border, the U.S. government has said. The fate of the other 11 men has never been revealed by Moscow.

was a conference vote on whether the EUB church leaders should officially entertain offers to merge with the Methodist Church.

A Methodist spokesman told the group earlier that the time was "ripe" for such a merger.

Thursday the delegates, representing some 850,000 church members, overwhelmingly passed a resolution forbidding the use of any of its 5,000 church buildings for segregated school classes.

The action was particularly significant since at least four segregation-torn southern states were represented at the conference.

The conference, held every four years, will be conducted again in 1962. No site for that conference had yet been set.

MAY GO TODAY TO GRAND JURY ON BOMBINGS

ATLANTA (AP)—Police may present to a grand jury today the evidence gathered in the investigation of the dynamite blast at Atlanta's Jewish temple.

Capt. R. E. Little, one of the leaders of the concentrated police probe, hinted that might be the most favorable move in view of court action to free five men already held in the case.

Attorneys for the five are seeking their release on grounds they are being detained illegally. A hearing on the writs has been set for today.

Meanwhile, FBI agents were assisting police in the search for the person or persons who set off a big bundle of dynamite at The Temple before dawn Sunday.

Four of the five men held are charged with suspicion of vagrancy. They are listed as George Bright, 35, Luther King Corley, 26, Robert A. Bowling, 25, and Kenneth Chester Griffin, 32. The fifth man, Wallace H. Allen, 32, is charged with suspicion of dynamiting, a felony which can carry the death sentence.

Politics
SHARON, Pa. (AP)—Hugh Scott, Republican candidate for U. S. Senate, said today the next Congress should enact legislation to rid labor unions of corruption.

Scott, currently serving as U. S. Representative said in a speech prepared for delivery in this western Pennsylvania community.

"If the minority of racketeers, embezzlers and hoodlums are not run out of the union movement—by laws or by the unions themselves—all 17 million Americans organized into unions will suffer."

The majority of union leaders are honest, hard-working men and women, Scott said, "who try to do their best for their members." He added:

"But there are enough Jimmy Hoffa's holding dictatorial positions to threaten the welfare of the entire union movement."

are designed to keep the stored water circulated, thus avoiding stagnation. The new inlet will be on the opposite side from the outlet.

Automatic Controls
The design as presented by William K. Hood, York engineer, included automatic controls which would operate the two well pumps automatically whenever the water level in the reservoir would drop to certain predetermined levels. An ordinary demand would start one pump but an unusual demand would set both in operation. The proposed controls would also operate the pumps alternately under normal circumstances.

The engineer pointed out that with this control system, the borough would be assured that its reservoir would be full at all times, a desirable situation in case of a serious fire.

The controls would up the cost about $2,450, Hood estimated. The cost-conscious council decided against the automatic feature, but the way remains open for council to change its mind at the time the bids are considered.

One councilman pointed out that for much of the time, about seven or eight months each year, the mountain springs supply all the water the borough needs. He said he thought manual control of the pumps would be satisfactory. Council did approve, however, one automatic feature. It is a control which would stop the pumps whenever they lower the water level in the wells to the point where there is danger that the pump may run dry. There is considerable risk of serious damage to a pump which runs without water, the engineer pointed out.

Interest A Factor
The improvement plan had been a project of council, which operates the water system, but when the cost was found to be higher than could be financed by the borough, the authority was organized to borrow the money and undertake the project.

The authority will contract the work and will lease the system to the borough at an annual rental which will be determined by the project cost and the interest rate on the authority bonds. The water rate will need to be upped sufficiently so that water system income will pay this rental and system maintenance costs.

It was estimated that the authority will need to borrow $40,000. This amount will cover the actual construction cost, pay engineers' and legal fees and provide a reserve for contingencies. Any amount left over would be applied immediately to the bond retirement fund.

Two things will affect the amount of rent the borough will have to pay the authority: the actual construction cost and the bond interest rate.

Paul M. Hartman is chairman of the authority which held its organizational meeting a week ago. Donald R. Ernst is vice chairman; the Rev. Nevill R. Frantz, secretary; Clair S. Thomas, treasurer, and William Stewart Grove, assistant secretary and treasurer.

Atty. Donald Swope is counsel for the authority.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

THREE PRAYERS for THE U.N.

The following prayers by three distinguished clergymen, are intended for use in connection with the Thirtieth Anniversary of the United Nations, particularly on the Sabbath preceding United Nations Day, October 24.

A Prayer
by EDWIN T. DAHLBERG
President of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

Eternal God our Father, who in the beginning of Thy creation brought order out of chaos, we pray that Thou wilt bring quietness and peace upon the earth in our time. Forgive us our wrong attitudes toward other races and nations. Inspire an effective spirit of penitence among us. Banish the fear and hunger and drives for power which impel us to arm ourselves against each other. Fill our hearts with humble compassion for the impoverished peoples of the earth, that they may the better rejoice in Thy goodness and believe in their fellow-men.

We thank Thee that in the United Nations Thou hast created an instrument whereby we may bring these things to pass. We praise Thee for victories already won for humanity. As the delegates from all continents continue to plead their cause in this great forum of world understanding, we ask Thy counsel for them. Direct the statesmen, scientists, journalists, news commentators, religious leaders and other interpreters of the events of the hour, civilian and military, that they may excite a spirit of confidence rather than of terror, and of good will rather than of contempt and hatred. Dedicate us to the massive reconciliation necessary for our survival in the Nuclear-Space Age. Thus may we enter into the vast dimensions of Thy wisdom and love, and witness the coming of Thy holy kingdom among the nations. In Thy name. Amen.

A Prayer
by RABBI THEODORE L. ADAMS
President, The Synagogue Council of America

Avinu She-bashamayim, Our Father Who Are In Heaven. Reign over all the Universe in Thy glory, and in Thy splendor be exalted over all the earth. Shine forth in the majesty of Thy triumphant power over all the inhabitants of Thy world, that every living form may know that Thou hast formed it, and every living creature understand that Thou hast created it, and all with life's breath in their nostrils may declare "The Lord God of Israel is king and His dominion ruleth over all."

O God, do Thou bind us ever more closely into the brotherhood of peoples, the United Nations, that we may labor unceasingly against the vices of malice and greed, fear and ignorance, hypocrisy and corruption, avarice and violence.

Prosper our country, O Lord, in all its worthy endeavors, so that future generations may praise Thee and call us blessed for the spirit of fellowship implanted in the hearts of all thy children. Vouchsafe Thy blessing upon the Secretary General of the United Nations and his associates and upon the President of the United States and his advisers.

Fashion Thou our hearts anew and bend our will to Thy purpose so that the call to war and the clash of arms may never resound in our land. Grant that our country may lead the way in the pursuit of peace and the fulfillment of the vision of Thy prophet: "Men shall do no evil and work no destruction on all God's holy mountain, for the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." Amen.

A Prayer
by MOST REVEREND ROBERT E. LUCEY, S.T.D.
Archbishop of San Antonio

Almighty God, in whose hands are the destinies of men, we pray that the United Nations, in its search for peace and justice, may enjoy Thy guidance and Thy blessing. Too many of Thy children place their hopes for peace in the achievements of men, while others, distaining human efforts, believe that only fervent prayers can save the world from chaos.

We recognize, O Heavenly Father, that the finest organization in the world will not of itself teach the nations to practice justice and good will. On the other hand, Thou hast given us intelligence and free will that we may use them to work out our salvation. It is not enough that we should pray; we must also work and plan and organize. Peace by organization alone makes man independent of heaven and peace by prayer alone is presumptuous. It is not difficult for evil men to throw the sand of nationalism and selfishness into the machinery of world peace and thus destroy it. We must use the good oil of justice and generosity to make it work, and these virtues, O God, come only from Thee.

Give us, we pray, an understanding of international unity and human solidarity. Let us not forget that all men are one in their creation, in their redemption and in their sublime destiny. Give us the light to see that our country belongs to the family of nations; our people belong to the human race.

Through the centuries men have prayed and worked for peace. Often they did not have it because the rulers of tribes and nations were proud and selfish. In our time the United Nations under God seems to be our last best hope for peace. Heavenly Father, give to the leaders of the people a sense of justice and good will that this great hope may become a reality. Amen.

CRITIC CALLS 'LITTLEWOMEN' BORING STUFF

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — "Little Women" came to the home screen Thursday night via CBS-TV as a musical play by Wilson Lehr with songs by Richard Adler.

Nearly every girl has read Louisa May Alcott's story and nearly every boy has not. Certainly this boy has not read it. Possibly I am incapable of judging "Little Women" on television. Possibly it was one of those occasions when a gentleman should defer to a lady's opinion.

Being a so-called critic rather than a so-called gentleman, however, I can confess that I found it boring stuff — the most boring TV "special" of the season thus far.

One Tart Character
Jeanne Carson as Jo was the single tart character in an otherwise saccharine cast. The other girls in the family projected near caricatures of absurd female attitudes.

Adler's music was mediocre except when Miss Carson sang "Man of the Family." The location of this musical play must have been in East Lynne, Mass. Take it away, girls.

Best Of Season
Playhouse 90, far and away the best dramatic series of the season, presented an excellent drama Thursday night in an adaptation of William Styron's novel of the Marine Corps, "The Long March," by Roger O. Hirson.

Sterling Hayden was superb as a tough martinet chillingly familiar to nearly every reservist who ever considered the penalties of committing mayhem on a career officer unfit to lead men.

Superb also was Jack Carson, as a recalled reservist, despite a little peculiar difficulty he had with some of his lines. Rod Taylor gave an outstanding performance as a lieutenant who understood both soldiering and humanitarianism.

KILLED IN COLLISION

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — Graybill G. Wenger, 72, of Modesto, Calif., was killed Thursday night in a two-car collision on Route 3 about six miles southwest of here.

State police said Wenger was attempting to make a left turn into a private drive when his car collided with a car driven by Richard L. Pfautz, 49, Lebanon. Pfautz was not seriously injured.

SAYS RESULTS BEST REPLY ON U. S. POLICIES

By PHILIP KEIF
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon says the answer to critics of administration foreign policy is this: the policy works—there is peace.

There had been some question as to whether President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles wanted foreign policy debated in the campaign.

But the President told Nixon Thursday he could answer any Democratic charges against the policy. And Nixon told a press conference here that foreign policy was not only a legitimate campaign issue, but a primary one.

Answer Critics

He said U.S. policy in Lebanon and Formosa was one of the most effective issues for the Republicans, though he did concede that some Democrats also favored American action in those spots.

At a rally Thursday night he said the answer to critics of both domestic and foreign administration policies was simply to point out that there is peace and economic progress.

Nixon also outlined the role he believes Cabinet members should fill in the campaign. He praised Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson of Utah as "a fighter for the principles and policies in which he believes."

Going To Wyoming

"If all the members of the President's Cabinet will in the last three weeks of this campaign fight as effectively and as articulately for their policies as he has fought for his, hundreds of thousands of votes will be shifted from the Democratic to Republican candidates in key House and Senate races," he said.

Nixon flies to Casper, Wyo., today to continue the campaign swing in the West. He will talk at Cheyenne, Wyo., and Denver before flying back to Washington tonight.

APPREHENSION OVER BUSINESS OUTLOOK GONE

By STERLING F. GREEN
HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) —

Among the country's top industrialists, apprehension over the business outlook has been replaced by high optimism and even some fear that the recovery may go too far, too fast.

That view was expressed privately by some members of the Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council, made up of the heads of nearly 100 of the country's biggest corporations. The council opened its fall meeting here with Secretary of Commerce Weeks.

Those interviewed agreed almost unanimously that full recovery is in sight, but they expressed fear that it will bring a revival of strong inflationary pressures.

Stocks Gone Wild

Said one influential BAC member: "I hope we don't move directly into another big boom. The stock market already has gone wild."

Weeks and other high government officials were understood to have brought to the weekend conference—from which reporters are barred—optimistic new appraisals of the economic outlook.

Some of the Washington experts, it was learned, believe the country will achieve a record production rate in the neighborhood of 450 billion dollars annually in this final quarter of the year.

Joblessness On Wane

They also foresee for this month another substantial drop in unemployment, comparable with the decline of nearly 600,000 in September.

If this estimate is correct, joblessness would be reduced to about 3½ million, a considerable improvement from the average of about five million which prevailed in the first nine months of 1958. It still would be about a million higher than a year ago.

The forecast production rate of 450 billion dollars compares with the recession low of $425,000,000 in the first quarter of the year.

This would mean that the economy had gained back, in nine months, all the ground lost since the summer of 1957 when the production rate was slightly over 445½ billion dollars a year. However, some of the rise is attributable to price inflation.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Dr. Herbert R. Domke, St. Louis county health commissioner the past 10 years, resigned Thursday to accept the post of director of the Allegheny County (Pa.) Health Department.

Domke, 39, told County Supervisor Luman F. Matthews a major factor in his decision to leave was the new appointment provides a considerable salary increase together with a retirement program. The resignation is effective Jan. 1, or as soon thereafter as practical, he said.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A one million dollar engineering center building for the National U.S. Radiator Corp. was dedicated Thursday.

The streamlined, one-story building, located on an eight-acre wooded tract, will house the firm's general engineering and research personnel, manufacturing staff and sales executives' offices.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Robertshaw-Fulton Controls Co. announced Thursday it will build a $2,500,000 plant on a 250-acre site at New Stanton, Westmoreland County.
